Narratives

Disaster Damage:

The City of Springfield was dramatically impacted by multiple Presidentially-Declared Disasters in 2011, the most severe of which was a June 1, 2011 F3 tornado. The tornado ripped through the downtown areas of Springfield and cut a mile swath through several neighborhoods, finally exiting the City limits through the East Forest Park and Sixteen Acres Neighborhoods. Current estimates of damage from this disaster exceed $170 million.

In addition to the tornado, in 2011 the City endured two disastrous snow storms, the worst of which was a surprise October Nor'Easter that caused approximately $30 million in damages and recovery costs. In addition, the City also received another Presidential Disaster Declaration for damages caused by Hurricane Irene.

While the tornado's path encompassed portions of eight neighborhoods, the vast majority of residential damage took place in just five: South End, Six Corners, Old Hill, East Forest Park, and Sixteen Acres. Following the tornado, the City grouped the tornado-impacted neighborhoods into three districts, each of which has different characteristics and needs. District 1 is Metro Center and the South End, District 2 is Six Corners, Old Hill, Upper Hill, and Forest Park, and the third District is East Forest Park and Sixteen Acres.

District 1: Metro Center and South End

The Metro Center and South End neighborhoods include a combination of commercial and residential uses, and over 90% of housing units are renter-occupied. In the South End and Metro Center, 30 structures with 242 housing units were condemned following the tornado. Ninety-nine housing units were destroyed. The building housing the South End Community Center and the Zanetti School building were badly damaged. A major mixed-use property at 979 Main Street was destroyed and a number of retail buildings along Main Street also suffered extensive damage. Severely damaged commercial property included the administrative offices and a child care site for Square One, an early childhood learning center.

District 2: Six Corners, Old Hill, Upper Hill and Forest Park

The majority of tornado damage in District 2 took place in the Six Corners and Old Hill neighborhoods. The primary location of damage in the Upper Hill neighborhood was located on the campus of Springfield College, where a dormitory was severely damaged and mature trees were toppled. A small number of homes and businesses on the edge of Forest Park were also damaged.

District 3: East Forest Park and Sixteen Acres

In the East Forest Park and Sixteen Acres neighborhoods, 146 single-family homes were condemned following the tornado. Fifty-six were destroyed. East Forest Park also experienced extensive damage to the Mary Dryden Elementary School and Cathedral High School, a local parochial school. The neighborhood, which includes areas of natural resources, lost extensive amounts of trees and sustained damages to parks and open space.

Recovery Needs:

At two years post-tornado, the City has witnessed the uneven recovery that has taken place: middle-class homeowner neighborhoods have been substantially rebuilt with homeowners insurance payments, while neighborhoods that were in distress prior to the tornado have experienced further abandonment and delay in recovery. The City intends to use CDBG-DR funds not only to address lingering individual disaster recovery needs, but also to revitalize the distressed neighborhoods that are slow to recover.

The City estimates the total amount of housing damage is $70,755,000. The total amount of insurance claims plus SBA loans paid out is estimated to be $27,146,708. The remaining total unmet housing need is $43,608,292. Springfield businesses sustained an estimated $40,781,633 in total commercial loss and interrupted business operations. In total, $20,614,503 of recovery funds has been disbursed, including SBA loans of $2,755,500 and commercial insurance of $17,859,003. This leaves $20,167,130 in current unmet need.

The amount of Infrastructure unmet need is $59,055,679.

Springfield's recovery effort must focus not only on economic recovery, but also neighborhood and economic revitalization, which is not captured in the above analysis. CDBG-DR funds must begin to address these unmet needs as well. Although Springfield has an estimated $122,831,101 in unmet building, infrastructure and community facility needs, there is an urgent need to revitalize extremely poor neighborhoods hit by the June 2011 tornado, and to stimulate economic activity.

Springfield is focusing neighborhood recovery on the South End, Six Corners and Old Hill, neighborhoods which are made up predominantly of persons of color (each neighborhood is less than 25% white), and which have median household incomes of under $25,000. The City will affirmatively further fair housing by targeting workforce training opportunities to residents of these neighborhoods and by improving conditions in these neighborhoods. Improvements include development of new housing for homeownership, roadway and sidewalk replacement, demolition of distressed housing, home repair, and purchase of buildings to meet neighborhood educational needs. The expectation is that the focused nature of these improvements will improve property values and spur further privately-funded improvements.

The appeals process with FEMA continues, which will cover some cost of the conversions. The City anticipates entering into a contract with SHA for the first four units within the next quarter. Hill Homes continues to work with their board and residents on a development plan.
